

GOETHE INSTITUT
Rue Belliard 58
1040 Bruxelles tel. 32 2230 39 70

www.goethe.de/bruessel

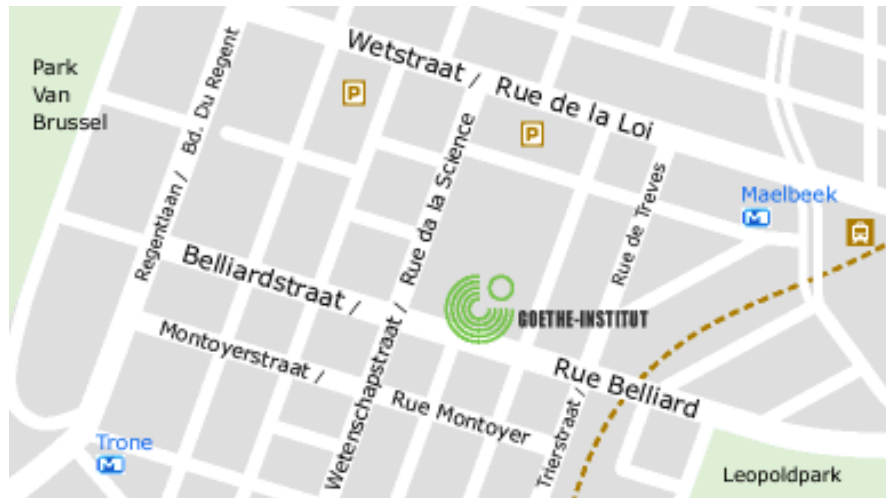

The Goethe Institute is located nearly in front of the European Parliament esplanade

Closest metro stations :

Trone on LINE 2,

Maelbeek on LINE 1 (or Arts-Loi on LINES 1 or 2 - Metro Station Arts-Loi is situated at the junction of Rue de la Loi with Bd. Du Regent.)

Buses: Place du Luxembourg Lines 20, 38, 54, 60, 95, 96, E, EO, HM, WA

If you are coming by plane:

In the airport follow the signs to the train station. Ticket 3 Euros to go to Brussels GARE CENTRALE. The train is called Airport Express and it runs 4 times per hour, the first train being at 5.30 am and the last at 11.45 pm. The journey takes about 30 mins.

In GARE CENTRALE. Follow the Metro signs (a large white M on a blue background as shown on the map). Single metro ticket costs 1,5 Euro but you can also buy a card for 5 (6,7 Euro) or 10 journeys (11 Euro).

Take the metro – LINE 1A or 1B in direction Herman Debroux or Stockel respectively. Get off at the station called MALBEEK. Take exit “Rue de la Loi”, stay on the left side and continue (against the way the cars go) till you reach Rue de Treves (first street on the left). You take rue de Treves and continue till you reach Rue Belliard (street with 4 lanes) and then you turn right on Rue Belliard and you reach the Institute at no 58. See also map above.

If you are coming by international train(GARE DU MIDI/ZUID STATION):

In GARE DU MIDI/ZUID STATION. Follow the Metro signs (a large white M on a blue background as shown on the map).

Single metro ticket costs 1,5 Euro but you can also buy a card for 5 (6,7 Euro) or 10 journeys (11 Euro). Follow the Metro signs (a large white M on a blue background as shown on the map).

Take the metro in direction SIMONIS. Get off at the station called TRONE. To go out of the Metro Station follow exit MONTOYER. Turn at the third street left – rue de la Science and continue until you cross rue Belliard (street with 4 lanes). Goethe institute is almost right opposite you.