

"We welcome the decision by the European Parliament's environment committee to support the EU ratification of the United Nations Minamata Convention on mercury. But currently only 6 or 7 member states are ready to ratify the agreement, and a few more are needed for the EU to trigger its entry into force before the deadline on 24 June. "

Elena Lymberidi-Settimo

Project Manager 'Zero Mercury Campaign', European Environmental Bureau